

CAREER OPPORTUNITY

VACANCY AT GIRL CHILD NETWORK (GCN)

The Girl Child Network (GCN) is an independent, non-political, non-religious, not for profit membership organization of over 300 organizations that includes key government ministries, departments and individuals working to improve the status of children in Kenya with emphasis on the girl child. The Network was born in 1995 as a follow up of the Beijing Platform for Action and implementation of Article 12, The Girl Child. It is from this that GCN draws its mandate which is to primarily mainstream children activities with a focus on the girl child, in the development sector through advocacy, information sharing, action implementation and strengthening of children programming in Kenya.

Within the Education program, GCN is implementing a project, 'Educate A Child Project (Our Right To Learn – Reaching The Unreached)' that aims to increase enrollment and retention of Out Of School Children (OOSC). The project is being implemented in Kwale, Garissa and Kajiado Counties. We invite qualified and experienced candidates to join our dynamic team in the below specified positions:
